DEATH CLAIMED HER.

Mrs. Dr. Izlar, wife of one of the most prominent young physicians in the state, died at her home in this city at 11 this morning.

Mrs. Izlar had been confined to her room for some time.

She was a young lady, beloved by all.

Aer maiden name was Miss Olivero, and her former home was in Savannah.

She had been married only about five years, and leaves two little children to mourn her loss.

Her death will be a shock to her many friends in Ocala.

To her sorrowing husband and babes we extend the sincere sympathies of the entire city.

It is expected that the body will be sent to Savannah for interment.

OLD-TIME GENTLEMAN.

Col. Adam Eichelberger insisted upon our going out to his pleasant home in the south part of the city yesterday, where he presented us with a fine basket of scuppernong and other grapes from his vineyard. The colonel showed us a row of 12 pecan trees, several of them 30 feet high and 14 inches in diameter and loaded with nuts.

The colonel promised to show us over his tobacco field soon.

EXCURSIONISTS RETURN.

The Atlanta excursionists returned home yesterday. They say Atlanta is full of life, and that the exposition is going to be a grand and glorious success.

Among those who returned were Capt. W. S. Trimble, A. S. Agnew, D. W. Davis, E. C. Smith, E. A. Polly, J. W. Sanders, S. E. Rowe, P. B. Dukes, Ed Carmichael, K. A. Griner, Wm. Fox and Julius Israel.

Power of Truth.
Think truly, and thy thoughts
Shall the world's famine feed;
Speak truly, and each word of thine
Shall be a fruitful seed;
Live truly, and thy life shall be
A great and noble creed. —Bonar,
